

Lauhaus aka Polder (Remote Area, Intacto, Sushitech)

Biography:

Lauhaus started out late nineties mixing various styles and developed his sound into an electro-infused blend of minimal house and techno using vinyl and cds. To keep surprising his audience Lauhaus always plays the hottest new releases and own productions. Ever since a young age Lauhaus has been busy producing. Currently he spends a lot of time in the studio together with David Labeij, working on their Polder project. This resulted in their first release. It will be out in April 2006 on the Amsterdam label Intacto records, (www.intactorecords.com).

Next to his dj-ing, Lauhaus is also the co-founder of the Traffic and Mono concepts. Traffic is a full on techno event, where artists like Surgeon, Ben Sims and Heiko Laux played. Traffic has been a succes since the start five years ago, with an innovating view on techno music. Next to its home-club the Melkweg, Traffic has been on tour at different locations throughout Holland like Doornroosje and Simplon. The Mono concept pays attention to the more minimal side of techno and house, with artists like Wighnomy Brothers, Karotte and Guido Schneider. After numerous clubs like Mazzo, 020 and club More, Mono found a new home in club 11. And after last years succes, Mono will be hosting a stage again at the Free Your Mind Festival.

Lauhaus popularity has grown over the years, which resulted in regular gigs al over the country at parties like Awakenings, Voltt, Innerscity, Free Your Mind festival, LINK!, Noorderslag, In Control, Pixel, Static, Planet Rose, Vreemd, 5 days off, Issue, M.A.D., Rokit festival and the FFWD Streetparade Rotterdam.
